

North Carolina's IRC reference jumps to Jul 5, 2025

Session Law 2026-31 moves the state's Internal Revenue Code conformity date forward by two and a half years and adds three new adjustments. Individual and corporate returns both feel it. Swipe →

IRC conformity date · Updated

IRC conformity date updated

IRC VERSION NORTH CAROLINA ADOPTS

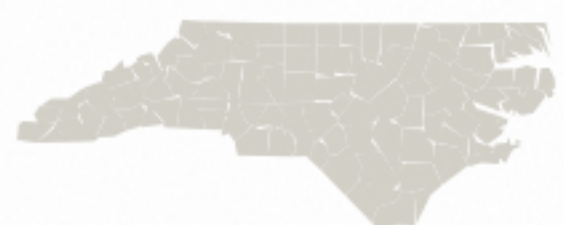

~~Jan 1, 2023~~ →

Jul 5, 2025

D-400

CD-405

D-403

State

NC Dept of Revenue

SL 2026-31 ✓

IRC conformity date · Updated

Three adjustments that come with it

- 1 Domestic research and experimental expenditures: a new decoupling adjustment — N.C. Gen. Stat. § 105-153.6A for individuals, § 105-130.5C for corporations.
- 2 Eligible timber casualty losses: a new deduction.
- 3 Gambling losses: a new itemised deduction.
- 4 NCDOR issued a second notice the same day on additional interest relief for Hurricane Helene taxpayers, covering franchise, corporate income, individual income (including partnership and estate and trust) and withholding tax.